VOL. III. NO. 242. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 10-11, 1897. PRICE, 5 CTS.

LIEBER KARL'S GOOD RACE.

There was a grand card and a big crowd at Harlem yesterday.

The two-year-old special was somewhat of a failure from a racing standpoint but the favorite, John Schorr's good colt Lieber Karl, won and the public was well pleased.

Jim Murphy's game son of Hanover and Triana, Buck Massie, carrying top weight and the people's money, won the $1200 Chicago Day Stakes in a drive from Meadowthorpe. Judging from the way Buck Massie won he is probably the best horse at the track at a mile or over.

He is a sluggish brute and Caywood to make sure of the race drew his whip on the stretch turn.

Three stout favorites won and the ring was worsted.

A NEW HORSE SALE FIRM.

Major W. Layng, editor of the Breeder and Sportsman of San Francisco, an excellent journal, and Ralph Tozer, the workman of its racing department, have entered into the horse sales field. San Francisco needed such a firm. Major Layng should be an ideal manager and Tozer a more than good display of pedigrees. William Fitch, who has made a sharp reputation as a salesman by his work as an auctioneer of pools at the Montana tracks, is to be the block man of the new firm. It is to sell thirty-four thoroughbreds for Mr. A. B. Spreckels first and thirty-eight yearlings later, and has already secured fifteen sales assignments.

INGLESIDE'S TEN EARLY STAKES.

The first lot of stakes of the Ingleside track (Pacific Coast Jockey Club) close Friday, October 15. Horsemen should remember this. There are ten events, all to be run before January 2. The meeting begins November 1. The conditions of the ten events are broad and up to date and the payments for eligibility low. Their full conditions are displayed on the back page of DAILY RACING FORM.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Already Eastern horsemen are invading California. "Old Fawther Toime" Young and Sam Hildreth have landed. So has Dick Williams with Schreiber's fighting brigade. The Examiner declares that Young next to Henry Harry is the "fastest block man in the business." So? Speed on the block is a quality to be praised. But how about keeping the result of speed? Is that criminal?

The Jockey Club's case against Riley Grannan has been decided against Grannan by the New York Court of Appeals. It rules Grannan off the turf. Cheap opinions from Western officials about the decision are not in line. Grannan's offense was mere disobedience of rules. He is but one of a thousand offenders. The Jockey Club could show sense and grace both by lifting the edict against him.

All Europe is staggering—with reason. The advent of Tod Sloan has driven the various political alliances, Greek questions and Emperor William of Germany into the shade. Tod is on the sea, and even it is agitated to its depths. Tod is to ride for the Fleischmann's in 1898 at a retainer of $12,000, after doing his best for Mr. Keene in England this fall.

Jack Batchelor died in California a few days ago. He was a character in many ways and especially keen as a gambler. He always played to the sky when his notion ran high. Woodcutter of the thoroughbreds and Mattie Graham of the trotters were the sharpest tools used by "Uncle Jack."

The superficiality of form making now and again declares this and that horse to be "pounds the best." When one goes to the sharpness of calculation over the items in a race and runs into such a declaration the help it affords, breeds profanity.

John E. Madden is to be congratulated on owning the half-brother to Plaudit and Hastings, (N. Y. Sun.) How about Ferrier and Handsome. Why neglect them, Cinderella produced both.

Barney Schreiber will probably enter the Balgovan-Olio Belle colt in the local horse show classes to which he is eligible. Some of the young Foul Shots—a grand lot—are also likely to be shown.

The Keene colt, Voter, made the journey to England wearily and is in bad condition. He has been declared out of the Cambridgeshire.

Jockey Thorpe will ride for Burns & Waterhouse the coming winter in California and during the season of 1898.

Charley Hughes is to train and Fred Tatal is to ride for the Chicago firm of Bromley & Co in 1898.

"Tip" Leigh, H. Eugene Leigh's father, died a few days ago at St. Louis.

Winner—B. f, by Tenny—Mattie Stanley.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth also hard at it. St Raymond was perhaps the best. He was interfered with shortly after the start and had a rough journey. Burns rode a powerful finish on him and he would have won in another jump. The price on Empress Josephine was far out of line. She was short and can do better next time. Darechota finished on three legs. She ran a very game race. It was form, too. Frances McClelland weakened badly in the closing drive. So did Bonito. Throw the latter's race out. She prefers a soft track and propped a trifle in this going. Empress Josephine was run up $300 over her entered price and bought in.

Overweights—Empress Josephine, 2 pounds; Moline, 3; Whirmantiline, 3.

Winner—B. g, 3, by St. Carlo—Royal Bess.
Post 12 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily. The next four were hard at it. The starter virtually gave the race to Zamar II. He was clear of his field and flying when the field broke. Newsgatherer, too, was well on his stride. W C T and Berclair were practically left. Throw both their races out. Diggs, slow to begin, finished strong. Forseen ran below the notch. So did Milwaukee.

Scratched—Silver Set, 104; Plumoria, 105; Farley, 113; Vitrola, 100; Warren Point, 105; Dan Huger, 103; Hush, 105; Virgie Dixon, 105; Forfeit, 100; Little Ocean, 103.

Time, 12½, 25, 36½, 48½, 1:01, 1:13½, 1:27, 1:40.

Winner—Ch. c, by Forester—Daisy Woodruff.
Off at first break to a good start. Won galloping; second hand ridden; third eased up. Lieber Karl was twenty pounds the best. Burns got him away well on his stride too. He had a chance to shut Traverser off on the first turn, but rode a clean race and pulled out from him. Traverser bore in on the rails all the way. He skinned them so close in the stretch that he injured his rider. Official floundered a trifle at the start. He did not run his race.

2037 FOURTH RACE—1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. The Chicago Day Stakes. $1200 Guaranteed.

Time, 12, 24½, 36½, 49, 1:02½, 1:14, 1:40½, 1:47.

Winner—Br. h. 5, by Hanover—Triana.
Post 20 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving; the other two were eased up. Buck Massie was real good, but displayed an extremely bad temper. He delayed the start and tried to kick every horse in the race. The exertion at the post told on him too, when the pinch came, Caywood rode a good race on Buck Massie. He cleverly went to the whip when far in front at the head of the stretch. It was well that he did too. The horse is game and always runs away from it. Morrison laid away too long with Meadowthorpe. This is not the colt's best race. Lady Callahan tried to run out all the way. David Tenny did all that was asked of him.
Scratched—Laureate, 111; Fervor, 93; Boanerges, 105; Shasta Water, 93.

2038 FIFTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. All Ages. Allowances.

Time, 23, 35½, 48½, 54, 1:01, 1:07½.

Winner—B. f, 2, by Florist—Mary Louise.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; The others were driving to the limit. Flora Louise was the best and showed it. Burns had to shake her up a bit at the head of the stretch to shake off Judge Wardell. The filly is game and responded like a lady. Charm had bad luck. She was obliged to take the long route and, for a wonder, finished gamely. Imp, good and fresh, but a trifle short, ran a good race. She should win her next. Watch Golightly in her class. She ran a real good race and finished strong.
Scratched—Graziella, 88; Bliss Rucker, 91.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Pirate of Penzance—Raybelle.

Off first break. Start good. Won well in hand; the next four were under full sail. Sea Robber was the best and best ridden. Burns got a running start and took the short route. Muskalonge showed a touch of his last year's form and under a bad ride ran a good race. Watch him. Gaston is of no present account. He had some bad luck though. Candelaria did all that was expected of him. Ace had extremely bad racing luck.

Scratched—Martin K, 94; Benamela, 100; Rewarder, 110; Confession, 88; Capt. Peirsal, 88; Pitfall, 97; Bridgeton, 105.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Torso—Hana. Start good. Won cleverly. Alarum was the best, more seasoned, likes mud, and is good now. Break o' Day appeared winning at the sixteenth pole, but collapsed suddenly. Dalgretti is improving and ran a good race. Premier was short. His preliminary was also bad. Lake View Palace quit after going a half. He is probably of no account just now.

Scratched—Fireside, 117; Buckwa, 115; Hi Daddy, 109; Manassas, 117; Ben Ronald, 117; Waterman, 103.

Winner—Br. c. 4, by Iroquois—Nettie Kent. Start good. Won driving. Perseus was the best. He was much used and stalled off Dorian. Old Saugus and Albert S in turn. Albert S was perfectly handled and likes the track. Dorian quit in the run through the stretch. He made his move too soon. W B made up a lot of ground. Old Saugus, off poorly, quit badly. His hard race of the day before hurt him.

Scratched—Ben Ronald, 109; Tavis, 105; Arabian, 4; Hurl, 101; Dalgretti, 95.

Time, 2:49, 1:15, 1:41, 1:41.

Winner—B. g. 6, by Buckra—Wewa. Start good for all but Maurice. Won easily. Buckwa was the best, but lucky. He had a fast pacemaker. Braw Lad was a speed wonder and hung on very gamely at the end. He is keenly good now. Ben Eder was a good horse himself and should do his next out. Manassas ran his race, and finished strong. Ulysses ran a remarkable race. He was running fastest of all except Buckwa in the stretch. King T was sore and had no speed.

Scratched—Yankee Doodle, 100; Lobengula, 106; Fireside, 94.

Winner—B. f. by Faverdale—Essayez II. Start good. Won easily. Attainment was the best. Brentwood was full of speed and very game. Percy F was jostled at the start and had a stormy journey. He closed fast at the end. Handpress appeared sore and had no speed. Throw this race out. Pontet Canet ran well. He is a useful colt.

Winner—Br. g. by Hindoo—Ben-Ma-Chree. Start good. Won pulled up. Ben Ronald was much the best. He is a wonderfully improved horse. Rey del Tierra had no chance with such a small boy. He needs blinkers and stronger handling. Fireside, overweighted, was a good filly. Azure wants a route and mud. Hi Daddy wants mud also, but a short race.

Scratched—Rappahannock, 122.
